Scholarship Application

I _____, NCWC _____-_____, do hereby make scholarship application to the NC Well Contractors Certification Commission (WCCC) to attend continuing education at the following event:

☐ On-Site Water Protection Conference; Raleigh, NC; October 8-10, 2013

(Application must be received by Commission staff no later than Aug. 1, 2013)

I have ____ / have not ____ previously been awarded a scholarship by the WCCC.

I understand that a limited number of scholarships may be available and that all applicants may not receive a scholarship. Selection criteria include but are not limited to: first come/first served, continuing education need, funding availability/approval. If awarded, the scholarship will cover attendeeôs admission fee to attend continuing education at the event. Fee is paid directly to the event coordinator (ex.- NCGWA), not the attendee.

Notes to Applicant:

1. These scholarships are only for North Carolina Certified Well Contractors.

2. With this application, include a copy of your event registration form. The event registration form should have your contact information filled out. For the Onsite Conference also select your Field Session Choice.

3. Submit the Scholarship Application form along with your event registration form to the Commission by the cutoff date noted on the Scholarship Application form.

   by mail: NC Well Contractors Certification
   1653 Mail Service Center
   Raleigh, NC 27699-1653

   or by fax: 919-845-3973

4. After the Scholarship Application cut-off date noted, the WCC-Review Committee will review the scholarship applications received for that event. The WCC-Review Committee will select which applicants are to receive the scholarship. Selection criteria include but are not limited to: first come/first served, continuing education need, funding availability/approval, previous scholarships awarded to applicant.

5. Commission staff then submits a funding approval request for those selected to the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) for budget approval.

6. Once approved by DHHS, all applicants are notified as to whether or not they will be receiving a scholarship. The names of those to be awarded a scholarship along with their registration forms are then sent to the event coordinator (ex.- NCGWA or On-Site Conference) to get them registered for the event. The applicant will not be reimbursed the registration fee. The registration fee will be paid directly to the event coordinator. (ex.- NCGWA or On-Site/NC State) So please be patient. You will be notified of whether or not you will be receiving a scholarship in time to register yourself if you do not receive one.

7. The scholarship will cover the attendeeôs admission fee to attend continuing education at the event. (ex.- For Jan. 2013 NCGWA, this would be for both Fri. and Sat. attendance; for the 2013 On-Site Conference, this would cover all three days).

   The scholarship does not cover any additional cost options for these events (ex.- the extra fee required to attend the pig pickinô at NCGWA) The attendee is responsible for any costs incurred other than event registration.
